Closing of Children's Book Week

We look back on a successful Children's Book Week! In the past period we have enjoyed beautiful stories, nice books and of course wonderful performances by our students. How nice it was to see how much enthusiasm and fun there was around reading and books!

Now that Children's Book Week has come to an end, we would like to emphasize that reading remains important throughout the year. Reading stimulates the imagination, increases vocabulary and helps children to better understand the world around them. Moreover, reading together is a pleasant moment to enjoy.

Diploma ceremony student mediators

Yesterday, Thursday 8 October, Danait, David, Nyrell and Maya festively concluded their training as mediators with a graduation ceremony.

During the training, they learned how to help resolve conflicts, ask open questions, listen carefully to each other and look for solutions together. They have actively participated and are developing into mediators.

We are proud of Danait, David, Nyrell and Maya and congratulate them on their diploma! We wish them a lot of fun as a student mediator of Klaverblad.

Week of parent's drop in

The week of the parent walk-in for groups 3 to 8 is coming up again. This was created to give you as a parent the opportunity to come in and see where your child is and what he/she is doing.

In the week of Monday 26 October is the first parent walk-in moment for groups 3 to 8. This means that you as parents can come into the classroom for the first 15 to 30 minutes. The time depends on the teacher. You can then view the work of and with your child, read together or participate in an activity of the teacher.

The teacher of the group will let us know in the week after the autumn break (the week of October 19) via Social Schools on which days parents are welcome. You then sign up for a time slot. That time slot probably indicates that it is a 1-minute appointment, but the reality is that you sign up for part of the morning and can then be present in the classroom until 9:00 a.m. at the latest.

The second week of the parent walk-in will take place in the week of February 8, 2027.

We hope for a nice turnout again this week! Do you register on time?

Go out during the autumn holidays: children travel for free!

The autumn holidays are a great time to go out together. Visit a museum, discover a park or take a ride on the tram through Amsterdam!

Children aged 4 to 11 who live in Amsterdam or Weesp can travel for free on GVB buses, trams and metros until 3 January 2027. This applies daily between 07:00 and 21:00, accompanied by an adult.

To do this, your child needs a personal OV-chipkaart with the GVB Kids Free travel product. Request this first and then charge it at a charging point on the card. Does your child not yet have a personal OV-chipkaart? This costs € 7.50.

Prefer to take the train? You can apply for NS Kids Vrij separately for this.

Have fun together this autumn holiday!
